

Andrey Ovsovich

Additional Circle of Excellence Nominations

Andrey has been creating value for himself and Propark from day one of opening this operation almost 2 years ago, as he continually leads his AM team by example, and is always looking for ways to get better and assist wherever it's needed. Our clients' expectations at this site have been extremely high, and Andrey has executed every ask without skipping a beat, making himself an integral part of the team and a reliable point of contact for the hotel when they need something done. Can't thank Andrey enough for his consistency, reliability and always showing up with a can-do attitude.

Nominated by: Jordan Hall

I always know someone is special when our regular guests notice their absence. "Where's Andrey?" is a question I'm so used to answering every Tuesday and Wednesday morning when he's off. He always delivers and does so with style when it matters most. His latest win providing a perfect arrival experience to a Marriott auditor, helping our client ace Marriott's annual brand standard audit. Asher Adams' GM shared that the hotel received the highest overall score he has ever seen in his career. Andrey's contributions to our team and our client's success deserve recognition.

Nominated by: Ravi Chatterjee